17 Counsel for the Plaintiffs listed below, pursuant to the Court's Order Regarding 18 Defendants' Amended Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Comply with PTO 10, dated November
19 19, 2025 (Doc. 4442) (the "Court's Order"), serve the following Rule 26(g) certification.

20 As a preliminary matter, Plaintiffs state that four of the Plaintiffs listed on Exhibit A to the 21 Court's Order have reviewed and uploaded signed verifications to their most recently amended
22 PFS. Therefore, the following four Plaintiffs intend to seek relief requesting that their cases not be 23 dismissed, and further requesting that they be relieved from the requirement to file notices of 24 dismissal:

25 (1) Plaintiff WHB 1891, ID 1744, uploaded a signed verification to MDL Centrality on
26 November 24, 2025;

27 (2) Plaintiff WHB 2056, ID 2903, uploaded a signed verification to MDL Centrality on
28 November 14, 2025;

(3) Plaintiff WHB 428, ID 1917, uploaded a signed verification to MDL Centrality on November 24, 2025; and

(4) Plaintiff WHB 1387, ID 1635, uploaded a signed verification to MDL Centrality on November 24, 2025.

Further, the following Plaintiffs' cases listed on Exhibit A had been dismissed prior to entry of the Court's Order: Plaintiffs WHB 305 (ID 1581); WHB 1860 (ID 2061); WHB 1317 (ID 2199); WHB 678 (ID 2078); and WHB 2055 (ID 2902).

The two Plaintiffs listed below appear on Exhibit A to the Court's Order. These Plaintiffs reviewed their most recently amended PFS before it was served via MDL Centrality:

	MDL ID	JANE DOE IDENTIFIER	CAUSE NUMBER	AMENDMENT MADE
1.	1885	WHB 1549	24-CV-05275	III.9 – date of incident  V.30.a. contact information
2.	1969	WHB 1596	24-CV-05473	II.7 – employer information for two years prior to incident  VI.40.a. – name of HCP at STESA, name of HCP at Santa Barbara County Public Health Dept., identify non-treating HCP noted in Q. 39  VII.2 – select an option for form of discovery

The remaining Plaintiffs listed below appear on Exhibit A to the Court's Order . These Plaintiffs did not review their most recently amended PFS before it was served via MDL Centrality.

Pursuant to Rule 26(g), I am one of the attorneys of record for these Plaintiffs. I certify that to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief formed after a reasonable inquiry, the information provided in each of these Plaintiffs' most recently amended PFS was complete and correct at the time it was made prior to service via MDL Centrality. The Plaintiffs are listed below, along with a statement of the amendment or amendments that were made to each respective amended PFS.<sup>1</sup>

	MDL ID	JANE DOE IDENTIFIER	CAUSE NUMBER	AMENDMENT MADE
1.	1546	WHB 1478	24-CV-04833	II.2. middle name * Plaintiff has verified two prior Fact Sheets
2.	1659	WHB 1123	24-CV-04850	II.2 middle name  III.14.a. Drop-off address, city, state  III.14.b. Response to 14(b) as to whether you and the driver communicated about ending the trip at a location other than the requested destination  (Plaintiff wrote in her incident details that driver took her to her intended destination, her home. The response “yes” in question 14 is incorrect.)  *Plaintiff verified prior Fact Sheet on January 24, 2025
3.	1567	WHB 1144	24-CV-04859	Uber’s alleged deficiency was inconsistent responses to questions 3 and 10 and 25 and 33.  VII.2 - Did not check off form of disclosure on authorization (electronic or hard copy). The authorization is moot since Plaintiff is obliged to obtain records under Amended PTO 10. Regardless, it was Uber’s choice as to how it

<sup>1</sup> Plaintiffs submit that under Amended PTO 10 (which was issued on November 3, after Uber filed its motions to dismiss these cases) and Judge Cisneros’s November 18, 2024 order, the PFS’s previously submitted and verified by most if not all of these Plaintiffs on both lists did not warrant the “deficiencies” that Uber claimed (for example, missing middle name or contact information for certain individuals, or claimed “inconsistent” responses), and were materially and substantially complete. Therefore, certain of these Plaintiffs, as permitted under Amended PTO 10, will be filing a motion to vacate the dismissal.
